2018 Conference Speakers

Sir John Jones

Knighted in 2003 for his services to education, Sir John worked most of his professional life in challenging schools across the North West of England, his last post being the head-teacher of a large secondary school in Merseyside.

His achievements and reputation for straight talking, leadership and creativity led him to be invited onto various organizations, panels and think tanks including the National College for School Leadership, the DfES' Leadership Development Unit, the Teacher Development Agency's National Remodelling Unit and visiting posts with both Manchester and Liverpool Universities.

Emma Knights

Emma Knights OBE, is Chief Executive of the National Governance Association (NGA) - the leading charity for guidance, research, advice and training for school governors and trustees. She was a governor at a secondary school in Warwickshire for seven years. She is co-author of the Chair's Handbook and is a founding trustee of the Foundation for Leadership in Education. In 2018, Emma was awarded an OBE for services to education. Follow Emma on Twitter @NGAMedia.

David Hyner

David is a researcher, trainer, entrepreneur, broadcaster, author, international motivational speaker and professional goal setting researcher. He is renowned for his interesting, humorous and inspiring presentations filled with references to his 17+ year's research interviews with top achievers. David reaches 10'000 – 50'000 delegates every year and has presented at over 2000 events worldwide to corporate events, conferences and conventions, through to chief executive groups and the education sector. His audiences leave his presentations with the confidence and conviction to achieve their big goals.

Diane Rance

Diane began her career in Employee Relations, where she first developed her skills around handling Tricky Conversations, before moving into a strategic HR role. She now works independently as a qualified Executive Coach and Mentor, and continues to support leaders who are handling Tricky Conversations. Diane is a mentor at Aston Business School and has been a Governor at a primary school and a sixth form college.

Fiona Anderson

Fiona has a wealth of experience in behavioural change and employee engagement. From whole organisation culture change to team dynamics and one to one coaching, she helps others to be the very best they can be in the workplace. Her voluntary roles include: School Governor; Founder of Greater Birmingham Engage for Success Network; active committee member of local CIPD Branch

Alan Dean

Alan joined Capita ESS in 2017 as a Service Director and holds a Business and Economics degree (Honours) from the University of Durban (South Africa).

He understands good customer results are underpinned through successful Interactions with key partners and suppliers. Alan started his career with KPMG in their Professional Services division. He was Services Director with Lumesse delivering process and structural change programmes to improve the services offered to SaaS Cloud customers. Prior to joining Capita he worked with ADP and was involved in the launch to market of a new enterprise Cloud service.
